

PRIVACY NOTICE

Lease of Council Property – Estates

Who we are

Moray Council, Council Office, High Street, Elgin, Moray, IV30 1BX, moray.gov.uk 01343 543451, is a local authority established under the Local Government etc. (Scotland) Act 1994. We are the Data Controller of the information being collected.

Why we are collecting your personal information

In order to enter into a lease, licence, occupation agreement, sublease or assignation of lease for property owned by the Council, your personal information is required. We will gather your name, contact details (email address and telephone number) and postal address.

In addition, the following personal information may be required: your bank details; a reference from a previous landlord; your solicitor and other professional agents' details; trade references; business account information; a business plan, and, other personal financial information. This information is gathered in order to assess, administer and manage the tenancy.

Further personal information may also be required in order to carry out proof of identity and/or money laundering checks.

Our legal basis

Whenever the Council processes personal data we need to make sure we have a legal basis for doing so. We understand the Council's basis in data protection law to be Article 6(1)(b) of the United Kingdom General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR), because your personal information is necessary for the performance of a contract to which you are subject.

Who we share your information with

Your personal data may be shared internally with authorised officers of the Council if having access to personal data is a necessary part of their roles to ensure records are accurate and up to date. It may also be shared with other relevant Council departments where applicable.

As part of the processing your personal data may be shared with third parties. These third parties include, but are not limited to: Grampian Assessors; utility companies; contractors; Registers of Scotland; credit agencies; the Council's external professional agents and other landlords seeking a reference - if necessary, under the terms of the lease.

The Council may share your personal data with other relevant Council departments and third parties, where we are under a legal obligation to do so. For example this may be with Police, Social Security Scotland, UK Border Agency or other Registered Professional Bodies.

The Council is required by law to protect public funds against fraud. It may share personal data with other relevant Council departments and third parties responsible for auditing and administering public funds, or who otherwise have responsibility for preventing and detecting fraud.

How long the information is held for

Your personal data will be securely stored by Moray Council for a pre-determined length of time. Information is only kept for the minimum amount of time necessary. We maintain a record retention schedule that sets out how long we retain different types of personal data. This is available on our website: http://www.moray.gov.uk/moray\_standard/page\_92820.html (under Section 5 of the Records Management Plan).

The Council stores information within the UK.

Your rights

Moray Council is the Data Controller for this personal data. You have legal rights about the way the Council handles and uses your personal data. These include the right to ask for a copy of it, to ask us to correct it and to ask us to stop doing something with your personal data. As so far as the legislation permits, you also have the right to request the deletion of your data, and to object to the processing.

For more information about these rights, please see the Information Management pages on the Council's website here: http://www.moray.gov.uk/moray\_standard/page\_41220.html. Alternatively, email the Council's Data Protection Officer at: dataprotection@moray.gov.uk

You also have the right to make a complaint to the Information Commissioner's Office. They are the body responsible for making sure organisations like the Council handle your personal data lawfully.
