

Quick Guide to Education Maintenance Allowance (EMA) School Session 2022/23

If you were born between 1 March 2003 and 28 February 2007 you may be eligible for an EMA.

What is an Education Maintenance Allowance (EMA)?

An EMA is an allowance of up to £30 per week to eligible young people who stay on in full-time education at school after their 16th birthday. It can be paid for a maximum of 3 years, 4 years in the case of vulnerable students. The EMA is only paid for weeks in attendance at school, up to a maximum of 40 weeks in any one academic year. EMA is not paid for school holidays. EMA is paid fortnightly in arrears directly into your bank account.

Do I qualify for an EMA?

The award is based on household income which is normally assessed on gross taxable income for the period 6 April 2021 to 5 April 2022. You must attend school for a minimum of 21 guided learning hours per week (timetabled hours including study periods). You must satisfy attendance requirements and complete and adhere to the terms of a Learning Agreement - a contract between the young person and their school (this is usually completed with Guidance staff).

The income thresholds for 2022-23 applicants are as follows:-

| Household income | Number of dependent children in the household | Award |
|------------------|------------------------------------------------------------|-------|
| £0 - £24,421 | for families with a single child in full-time education | £30 |
| £0 - £26,884 | for families with more than 1 child in full-time education | £30 |

Dependent children are all those up to the age of 16, and those over the age of 16 and up to the age of 25 if they are in full time further or higher education.

If there is a significant change in financial circumstances within the household students may be eligible to apply for an in-year assessment during the current academic year.

If you are receiving education while living in a foster home or children's home, and are in the care of the local authority or living independently in receipt of Income Support or contributions-based Employment and Support Allowance, you are eligible for a £30 EMA award without having to provide evidence of household income.
