Common Good Consultations

Who we are

Moray Council, Council Office, High Street, Elgin, Moray, IV30 1BX, moray.gov.uk 01343 543451, is a Local Authority established under the Local Government etc. (Scotland) Act 1994. We are the Data Controller of the personal data being collected.

Why we are collecting your personal data

Moray Council has a statutory duty under the Community Empowerment (Scotland) Act 2015 to carrying out statutory consultations for proposed disposals and changes of use of common good property or land. Any representations made under these consultations are required to be responded to, as such along side your response your personal data, including your name and contact details (email and/or postal address), will be collected so that the Council can respond to you.

Consultation representations can be made directly to the Council, or, by utilising a template response form available through SurveyMonkey. At the end of a consultation period the consultation and representations will be reported to the Council's Corporate Committee and the outcome of this committee is required to be communicated to everyone that made a representation.

Our legal basis

Whenever the Council processes personal data we need to make sure we have a legal basis for doing so. We understand the Council's legal basis in data protection law to be Article 6(1)(e) of the United Kingdom General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR), because your personal data is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest, or in the exercise of official authority vested in the Council, and the task or function has a clear basis in law. The Council's basis in law is set out under the Community Empowerment (Scotland) Act 2015 legislation.

Who we share this personal data with

In order to facilitate responses a template may have been developed, with such responses collected via SurveyMonkey. For more information on how SurveyMonkey process personal data, please see the Privacy Notice available on their website here: <https://uk.surveymonkey.com/mp/legal/privacy/>

Your personal data may be shared internally with authorised officers of the Council if having access to personal data is a necessary part of their roles to ensure records are accurate and up to date. It may also be shared with other relevant Council departments where applicable.

The Council may share your personal data with other relevant Council departments and third parties, where we are under a legal obligation to do so. For example, this may be with Police, Social Security Scotland, UK Border Agency, or other Registered Professional Bodies.

The Council is required by law to protect public funds against fraud. It may share personal data with other relevant Council departments and third parties responsible for auditing and administering public funds, or who otherwise have responsibility for preventing and detecting fraud.

How long the personal data is held for

Your personal data will be securely stored by Moray Council for a pre-determined length of time. Information is only kept for the minimum amount of time necessary. We maintain a record retention schedule which sets out how long we retain different types of personal data. This is available on our website: www.moray.gov.uk/retentionschedules (under Section 5 of the Records Management Plan).

The Council stores information within the UK.

Your rights

Moray Council is the Data Controller for this personal data. You have legal rights about the way the Council handles and uses your personal data. These include the right to ask for a copy of it, to ask us to correct it and to ask us to stop doing something with your personal data.

As so far as the legislation permits, you also have the right to request the deletion of your data, and to object to the processing.

For more information about these rights, please see the Information Management pages on the Council's website here: www.moray.gov.uk/InformationRights. Alternatively, email the Council's Data Protection Officer at: IG@moray.gov.uk

You also have the right to make a complaint to the Information Commissioner's Office. They are the body responsible for making sure organisations like the Council handle your personal data lawfully.
