

The Gambling Act 2005
Applicant's Declaration in Respect of a Small Society Lottery

To the Moray Licensing Board:

The (name of society)

This declaration is to be completed by the applicant alongside the application for registration of a small society lottery. This declaration is required by the Moray Licensing Board in accordance with its policy on the running of small society lotteries. The declaration is acceptable evidence that the society qualifies as such under the Gambling Act 2005 as being non commercial i.e. established and conducted: for charitable purposes; or for the purpose of enabling participation in, or of supporting, sport, athletics or a cultural activity; or any other non-commercial purpose other than that of private gain. If the Moray Licensing Board is not satisfied as to the society's status in this regard then registration may be refused.

Declaration as to the status of the Society	I the undersigned declare that the Society represented by this application that is requesting registration with the Moray Licensing Board for the purpose of promoting small society lotteries is a bona fide non commercial society that was established and is being conducted for the following non commercial purpose(s): (insert purpose(s) that must qualify as charitable purposes or for the purpose of enabling participation in, or of supporting, sport, athletics or a cultural activity or any other non-commercial purpose other than that of private gain – continue on a separate sheet if necessary)
Declaration as to persons associated	I the undersigned declare that the following person(s) will or may be connected with the promotion of the lottery and that any such person(s) has not been convicted of a relevant offence:
		Name
		Conviction? Yes/No & Give Details if any
