

Blackwood Homes

Blackwood Homes provides houses for rent throughout Scotland for disabled people and their families, for older people and for non-disabled people, all within mixed communities. Blackwood also provides flexible care and support packages for disabled people which are specially tailored to meet personal needs.

How to apply

Applications should be made direct to Blackwood Homes. From the information requested on the self-assessment form, points are awarded and allocations are made on housing need priority.

We do not have up to date stock levels, re-lets and rent details for Blackwood Homes.
